One Lucky Little Boy

I could hear him from across the ice rink, “MOM, There’s my quilt!”. I was on white glove duty so I was interested in what he was looking at. I think all of us quilters secretly shout that when we enter the arena for the first time, “There’s MY quilt!” The thrill of seeing your beloved bed cover on such fine display really does give your heart a proud feeling. I asked him who made that wonderful quilt? He said, “My Grandma!” I said, “You really have a nice Grandma.” he said “Yeah” and his Mom walked up and said, “Yeah, we really like her.” So I had to check out the tag, and Flibbity-Gibbet, it was made by Janet Siler Nice Work! ~Kathy Baker

2014 Quilt Show Recap
as of October 3, 2014

** Not all income and expenses have been reported **

Quilt Show Income:	$ 18,123.00
Quilt Show Expenses:	$ 5,852.00

A big thanks goes out to the quilters and the bidders on the NCWQG's 2014 Silent Auction quilts. Eleven beautiful quilts were donated and $680.00 was raised to be donated to the Okanagon County Community Action Council to benefit the Pateros area fire victims. A great effort by all!

Diane Mitchell and Jill Therriault have agreed to take on the Block of the Month Chairmanship for 2015. They have a new and fun idea to present at the October meeting to generate interest and excitement. Don't miss the meeting, we hope you will want to get involved and explore new techniques and dimensions in quilting. See you there.

Guild Meeting
 Wednesday, October 29th
 Early Start 5:00 pm to set up, 6:30 Meeting

The October NCWQG meeting will be a sew-in work party evening to complete needed items for the Comfort quilts committee. We will be working on Placemats, Pillowcases and Comfort quilts. Please join us with your sewing machines, irons and ironing boards, and some mats with rotary cutting tools. If we each bring something on that list then Debra and Kathy don't have to supply so many tools.

Have your machine threaded with neutral thread and come early (5pm) and ready to have some fun sewing with friends for many good causes. See you there.

Hospitality Table

Wouldn't a crock pot of soup and bread be nice as we're sewing? Let's have a Pot Luck-Those of you that can bring something, preferably not too sugary, and October birthdays, too, Let's see how lucky we get!
 We're looking for new Chairpersons for Hospitality for 2015.
 Please contact Darlene Johnson <darlenejohnson248@gmail.com>

Dear Guild Members,
I would like to thank everyone who contributed items to the Boutique, who worked the Boutique and finally everyone who bought the items. Thanks to you, we made over $3,000 dollars this year.
Signed The Former Boutique Queen, Arlene Crumrine

Quilt Guild Library

Just a reminder that the guild has many quilting books available in a cupboard at Andrew's Sew and Vac. To find books before you go to Andrew's, go to:
<http://www.librarything.com/> Log in as: Name: newquiltguild Password: fatquarter14
Choose the Your Books tab To Search: Type a title or keyword into Search Your Library box
Click on Search
You will get a list. Click on title to see details, summary, and reviews.
To check out a book, e-mail request to: paine.s@applecapital.net or call 663-4006.
I will bring the book to the next meeting.
Or you can go to Andrew's Sew and Vac. The books are in a cabinet there.

- Books may be checked out for one month.
- Write your name, phone number, and today's date on the card in the book.
- Write the due date (one month from today) on the card pocket.
- Place the card in the box.
- Books may be returned here or at the monthly guild meeting.

(Book donations can be placed in the return box.)

Please, check your bookcases at home to see if you might have a forgotten quilt guild book.
I will try to bring a list of overdue books to our next meeting.

RAFFLE QUILT

We want to thank all those that sold or bought raffle tickets this year. We did well, selling 3,888 tickets. We especially want to give credit to Marlene Chadderton, Tina Whitley, Kay Sparks, Gloria Palmer and Diane Gillin for selling 100 or more tickets. Thanks to everyone for all their help and a special thanks to Barb Vincent for always being there when we needed help.

~Jane Wheeler and Deanna Navone

What is it Like to WIN?

"Congratulations Jan, I thought it would be fun to interview you about "Being a Winner". We all buy oodles of tickets, and these drawings come and go without a call. What did it feel like to win such a beautiful quilt? How many tickets did you buy? (Did you sell yourself the winning ticket?) What are your plans for this quilt called "Midnight Vintage Dreams"? You must love this-it's your style of bright colors and swarovski crystals, fate picked the perfect winner! Congratulations again!" ~Kathy Baker

"It was very surprising to get the call and lot of excitement to realize I had won the quilt. I bought all my tickets so sold myself the winner. I think I will hang it in my living room for awhile. The colors and design really fit what I like. Thanks for asking. I have to go right now, we are on vacation in Europe and am in Brugge Belgium. Thanks," ~ Jan Davies

The vendors at Pybus Market are interested in having holiday wall hangings in November and December. If you have small to medium-large wall hangings, please email Kay Sparks at sparks3@nwi.net. I will gather and hang them as well as return them to you after Christmas.

Thanks, Kay

Please tell your Friends to Shop Here!

Dear Guild Members, At Pybus Market on November 8 and 15 there will be a booth of hand made gifts to support The University of the Nations in Battambang, Cambodia. Our nephew, Garth Gustafson has been living in Battambang since 2005 and exciting things are happening there. The YWAM Base (Youth With A Mission) has grown from 5 volunteers in 2005 to 73 full time staff today. Land has been purchased and building plans are ready to begin Phase 1 including all infrastructure, cafeteria, kitchen, office, 2 dormitories and youth development center.

The total donations from the Pybus Market Event will be matched locally by a donor up to $1,000 AND that total will be matched again by another supporter of the building project.

If you donate a handmade gift for this special sale you will set the amount for your item and that price will triple for the building fund!

If you have an item to donate you may bring it to our home OR I would be happy to pick it up at your convenience. Items need to be donated by November 3.

Thanks for considering a gift to this exciting project.

Please contact me with any questions ~Jane Culp 662-592-6115 South Franklin Street, email culpjam@hotmail.com Wenatchee

What do you create? Placemats, coasters, pot holders, table runners, aprons, cell phone covers, bags, scarves, wall hangings, baby quilts, Jane will pick these up if you

BRING THEM TO THE OCTOBER GUILD MEETING! We are challenging Guild Members in 2 teams. If you want to play-those with the last name initial A-M against N-Z. One point for every item donated. The winners will be announced at the November Guild.

Dear NCW Quilt Guild,

Thank you for the opportunity to participate in your quilt show and to show my quilt. I enjoyed meeting you; bringing home ribbons was an amazing surprise and honor!

I look forward to seeing you again and wish you Happy Quilting.

Warm Regards,
Carole Johnson
Moses Lake

Comfort Quilts Sew-In

Please join our sew-in on October 14th at Andrews 10:30-2:30. Bring sewing machine and lunch if desired. Water and cookies provided. We will be working on comfort quilts.

On my camping trip through Conconully I was surprised to see barn quilts everywhere I must have spotted almost 30 of these small painted blocks.

I asked Marlene Oddie if she knew anything about that. She responded: "Conconully's barn quilts have been an idea by a lady who spends about half time each month in that area and the rest of her time on the west side of WA. They had their first mostly outdoor quilt show this summer and plan to have an even bigger one next year. I got to meet her since our Senior Center loaned them quilt racks for hanging the quilts and I went up with another gal to retrieve them after the show. Grand Coulee is thinking about adding a quilt show to their Harvest Festival that happens in September" Please check out Marlene's excellent Long Arm work at <www.kissedquilts.com>
